EN - We pray for the youth

1°

Mary, Mother of Jesus and the Church,
we entrust our young people to you.
You love them with great and pure love.
For them, you have gentle and silent words unknown to us.
You search their hearts and minds.
We pray for them; we entrust them to you:
they are inexperienced in life and beset on every side.
They live in unhealthy environments and corruption attacks them.

Mary, Immaculate Mother of youth,
do not abandon them in their hour of trial.
Help them to believe because life without faith is a desperate night.
Help them to be pure, because without purity there is no love,
only selfishness of the senses.
Help them to be strong and enlightened by perfect joy,
because life is beautiful when it can draw from the sources of Divine Grace.
Help them to be honest and hardworking, healthy in mind and heart.

3°

Mary, see the tears of so many mothers worried about their children's future.
May they be examples of life for their children, secure guides in difficulties.
Make their words effective, give strength to their actions,
hear their prayers.
Console their secret sorrows and incessant anxieties.
In the hearts of so many generous young people,
inspire ideals of perfection and holiness.
A youth strong in faith and purity hastens the new radiant springtime of the Church of Christ.
In this wonderful rebirth, You, O Mary,
will be our sure guide and teacher.
Amen.
